

International Operations Internship 2023/2024

internships@indiecampers.com

Who you are:

You are a university student (Hospitality, Tourism, Business Administration, International Studies, etc.) looking for an internship

You are fluent in English & have a valid driver's license

You like international environments and meeting new cultures

You are a travel enthusiast with a passion for customer service

What we offer:

All internships are paid, the amount being dependent on location, country, and region (accommodation not included)

Continuous training and coaching to develop relevant skills to your growth

Being part of a young, fast-growing and innovative company

International opportunities and real chance of integration in Indie Campers after the internship

What you will do:

Client Relationship Management

Stock Management

Operations Handling

Quality Control

Customer Service

Logistics

Reservations

<https://indiecampers.com/careers/internship>